KANSAS CITY'S BIG BID.

Kansas City is preparing to make a strong bid for the next National Democratic convention Democrat. "Mr. Harrison and the indications now are that it Mayor of our city," said Mr. A' will prove a winner. It certainly will if high-bidding and enthusiasm are necessary to success.

When the National Democratic Executive Committee meets in Chicago next week a delegation of prominent Kansas City citizens will appear before that body and ask for the immediate location of the convention. Kansas City will make an unusually liberal offer for it. It proposes to provide a convention hall, hotel accomodations and expense money for the National Committee and all other expenses usually borne by the winning city in such cases, addition promises to contribute $50,000 in cold cash to the Democratic campaign fund. Of this sum $40,000 has already been raised and the re mainder will be easily forthcoming. Bidders for the convention usually stop at offering a convention hall and the expenses of City is in deep earnest and anxs lous for the convention. Therefore it makes a proposition which is not likely to be duplicated much less excelled, and as the Democrats will need all the campaign funds they can get the Kansas City is well prepared to take care of the next National Democratic Convention. It claims to have the best convention hall in the country, with a seating capacity of 20,000 people. It was built by popular subrcription, gift enterprises, etc., and cost and is for public use. This are witnessed at present, and that gratulate both Mr. Jones and Students from twenty-seven States, For Western metropolis also posses-
